

Create Your Own Cards Template

A large rectangular area defined by a dashed border, intended for creating a card template. The border is composed of short horizontal and vertical segments. The interior of the rectangle is completely blank, providing space for text or graphics.